

The Honorable Judy D. Banks
Interim Director of Personnel
441 – 4th Street, N.W., Room 300S
Washington, D.C. 20001

Dear Ms. Banks:

Enclosed for your information is an Opinion of the Corporation Counsel issued today. The Opinion concludes that recent legislation by the Council having the purpose and effect of removing the Inspector General of the District of Columbia, Charles Maddox, from his office, effective on June 1, 2003, violates the District Charter, is unlawful, and, therefore, should be considered as being null, void, and of no effect in regard to such removal.

Based on the Opinion, I advise you to maintain Mr. Maddox as a District government employee, pursuant to the terms of his appointment as Inspector General.

Sincerely,

Anthony A. Williams
Mayor
